

The Law Society

www.lawsociety.org.uk

A.I. and ethics

Plotting a path to the unanswered questions

The growth of AI in society and in the law gives rise to a range of fundamentally important questions. This conference will explore these questions, bringing together global experts from the tech community, private practice, in house and academia. Be part of that debate.

27th April 2018

8.30am - 13.00

FREE

Hogan Lovells, Atlantic House, 50 Holborn Viaduct, London, EC1A 2FG

Keynote Address

Professor Richard Susskind OBE

Christina Blacklaws,
Raja Chatila

Patricia Christias
Sylvie Delacroix
Ben Gardner
Sofia Olhede
Adrian Weller
Sophia Adams Bhatti

Plus more

VP Law Society

ISIR and Chair of IEEE Global Initiative for Ethical Considerations in AI

Microsoft

University of Birmingham

Wavelength Law

UCL

University of Cambridge and Alan Turing Institute
Law Society

In partnership with

Hogan
Lovells

To book a place at this free event please RSVP aiandethics2018@lawsociety.org.uk